

Sports as Recreation

Plan a three-day group getaway perfect for fans of sports and the great outdoors.

Progressive Field, home of the Cleveland Indians © Corinne Allie

Day One

Tommy's (perfect for vegetarians/vegans/ gluten avoiders and carnivores) offers an eclectic menu with items named after its loyal customers. Up for something new? Try a Mr. Stress . . . BLT with peanut butter, mayo and American cheese on white toast. More traditional? Try pancakes with strawberries. The winner of numerous "best casual meal" awards, Tommy's is up for the challenge of kick starting your day. 216.321.7757
www.tommyscoventry.com

Visit the Crawford Auto-Aviation Museum at the Western Reserve Historical Society to check out vintage automobiles, aircraft, bicycles and motorcycles. The complex also includes a history museum and the restored illuminated Cleveland Indians sign that perched over Gate D on the old Cleveland Municipal Stadium for 32 years. 216.721.5722 • www.wrhs.org

The classic steakhouse menu and throw-back nostalgic feel of the Cleveland ChopHouse & Brewery makes for a uniquely downtown Cleveland dining experience. What could make this meal even better? A pint of hand crafted beer brewed on site by Irish brewmaster, Gerry O'Connell. 216.623.0909
www.clevelandchophouse.com

Great Lakes Brewing Company © Scott Meivogel

Enjoy your afternoon with a 45-minute tour of Cleveland Browns Stadium and get access to the press box, a luxury suite, NFL Team Shop and the Browns Locker Room. Call for availability. Reservations required.

440.824.3361 • www.clevelandbrowns.com/tickets/stadium/tours.php

Enjoy a tour and tasting at the Great Lakes Brewing Company, Cleveland's iconic eco-friendly local brewer with beers named after events and figures in the region's history (try an Edmund Fitzgerald Porter or an Eliot Ness Amber Lager).

216.771.4404
www.greatlakesbrewing.com

The great outdoors coupled with America's greatest pastime combine to make visiting a Cleveland Indians game an electrifying event for the summer. Opened in April of 1994, Progressive Field has been described as a "fan-friendly" park and a "must-visit" for baseball lovers. While there, visit the legends of Heritage Park and enjoy a Sugardale "frank" slathered in Bertman Original Ball Park Mustard. (If there's no game, check into a behind-the-scenes tour.) 216.420.HITS • www.indians.com

Head over to House of Blues for dinner and their folk art-inspired concert hall that headlines some of the nation's top performing musical acts. Menu features Southern-inspired cuisine.

216.523.BLUE (2583)
www.HouseofBlues.com/cleveland

Day Two

Watch the sun rise above the horizon aboard your own charter fishing boat. With many charter companies offering fantastic fishing experiences, the big catch is only a call away.

Fishin' Boat Charters 800.777.9304
www.fishboatcharters.com

Holiday Charters
216.991.FISH
www.holidaycleveland.com

North Coast Charter Boat Association 216.319.0840
www.eriefishingcharters.com
www.northcoastcharter.com

Wildwood Marina
216.481.5771
www.discoverydive.com

Charter fishing on Lake Erie © Courtesy of Wildwood Marina

People can expect exceptional food synonymous with the Lockkeepers tradition, including guest favorites with a distinctive Italian flare including steaks, seafood and pasta at reasonable prices. And, nestled at the tip of the Cuyahoga Valley National Park, cyclists on the scenic Towpath Trail can valet their bikes and stop for refreshments.

216.524.9404 • www.lockkeepers.com

Vintage memorabilia, bronze inductee busts and the stories behind gridiron greats reside at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton. An array of interactive experiences gives pigskin fans a variety of ways to experience the greatest moments and players of the game.

330.456.8207 • www.profootballhof.com

Corner Alley © Jeff Greenberg

Next up, a behind-the-scenes tour or baseball game with hometown favorite and Cleveland Indians affiliate, the Akron Aeros. On any given day fans are treated to special promotions like Tropical Beach Night, $1000 Cash Dash, free tin lunchbox day, and special fireworks displays.

330.253.5151
www.akronaeros.com

Serving certified Angus Beef, John Q's Steakhouse mixes great food with an atmosphere accented by polished brass, warm lighting, and hardwood floors. Outdoor seating available.

216.861.0900
www.johnqssteakhouse.com

Roll into the Corner Alley on East Fourth Street entertainment district. Spend your spare time enjoying the sophisticated entertainment center's 16 sleek bowling lanes.

216.298.4070
www.thecorneralley.com

Day Three

© Scott Meivogel

Start your day right by visiting the #3 ranked public golf course in Ohio by Golf Week magazine 2010, Boulder Creek Golf Club in Streetsboro. Boulder Creek's challenging layout and professionally-manicured grounds are worth the trip.

330.626.2828
www.bouldercreekohio.com

You don't have to go to Colorado to experience mountain-style lodge dining. At Blue Canyon Twinsburg, enjoy a delicious lunch surrounded by warm fireplaces, cozy accents and cathedral ceilings.

330.486.2583
www.bluecanyonrestaurant.com

Free planning, itinerary assistance, hotel leads and much more. Please contact:

Jane Tougouma
Group Tour Sales Manager 216.875.6607
jtougouma@positivelycleveland.com

 Kindly mention our referral when contacting suggested destinations.*

www.positivelycleveland.com
Twitter: @PositivelyCleve